

Summer, 2015
Volume 57 Number 3

Catholic Rural Life (ISSN 1089-6570) is published by Catholic Rural Life (CRL) for its members. Our mission is to apply the teachings of Jesus Christ for the social, economic, and spiritual development of rural America with responsibility for the care of God's creation. By providing spiritual, educational, and advocacy assistance, CRL helps rural people shape their futures and lead lives of dignity.

CRL BOARD OF DIRECTORS

President, Most Reverend Paul D. Etienne
Bishop of Cheyenne, Wyo.

Most Reverend Michael W. Warfel
Bishop of Great Falls-Billings, Mont.

Most Reverend Edward J. Weisenberger
Bishop of Salina, Kansas

Mr. Ron Rosmann
Harlan, Iowa

Reverend Gregory Mastey
Pastor of Holdingford Area Catholic Community,
Holdingford, Minn.

Ms. Elvira Ramirez
Catholic Charities, Stockton, Calif.

Ms. Jennifer Kraska
Colorado Catholic Conference, Denver, Col.

Sr. Esther Mary Nickel, RSM
St. John Vianney Theological Seminary

Mr. Michael McGovern
Northfield, Minn.

EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR
James Ennis

STAFF:

SENIOR RESEARCH FELLOW
Dr. Christopher Thompson

DIRECTOR OF DEVELOPMENT
Peg Louiselle

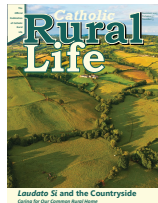

PROGRAM COORDINATOR
Beth Hyser

POLICY COORDINATOR
Robert Gronski

ADMINISTRATIVE COORDINATOR
Chantel DeBlois

COMMUNICATIONS COORDINATOR
Jonathan Liedl

The patchwork landscape of green summer fields is a vibrant reminder of the glory of creation.

Laudato Si and the Countryside
Caring for Our Common Home

DESIGN
Jared Roddy

Contents

Feature Stories

Laudato Si and the Countryside: Caring for Our Common Rural Home

Laudato Si and the Vocation to Agriculture 10
A Prince of the Church explains the connection
— By Cardinal Peter K.A. Turkson

Rural Reactions 14
Receiving the encyclical in the countryside
— By Jonathan Liedl

The Road Home 20
A much-needed guide for the prodigal son
— By Robert Gronski

Commentaries

Virtue: The Hidden Foundation of Laudato Si 18
— By Leah Miller

Farmers: Loyal Stewards of the Household of God 19
— By Dr. Christopher Thompson

News and Notes

CRL News 4

Praised Be God in Rural America 7
President's Welcome - Bishop Paul D. Etienne

Preparing Our Hearts to Receive God's Gift 8
In This Issue - Executive Director Jim Ennis